Offer of Advertising in the Symposium papers

Take advantage of the possibility to place an advertisement in the Symposium Handbook and to promote your company!

The Symposium paper contains schedule as well as abstracts of all lectures in German and English language. It is available not only during the Symposium but also after it. Quite often there are also inquiries from companies of the Flock industry, newcomers, institutions and universities asking for this information. No doubt this has an efficient publicity appeal, and we strongly recommend you to place an advertisement.

Please find the order form enclosed. Due to the fact that the space for advertisements in the papers is limited we ask you to book an advertisement ASAP and by 1.st of March 2024 at the latest.
